4. Anticipate any conflict, and if it takes place, act as a mediator.
5. Let your behaviour in the stands be an example for the families.
6. Maintain on-going communication with the team's families.
7. Act quickly and efficiently calming down any situation of tension on the stands.
8. Take the initiative in singing songs and making gestures to encourage the players.

10. Say goodbye to the opposite team and make it easy for them to leave.
